

Ministers and people declared that the prophecies of Daniel and the Revelation were incomprehensible mysteries. But Christ declared, “When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, whoso readeth, let him understand.” Matthew 24:15.

And the assertion that the Revelation is a mystery, not to be understood, is contradicted by the very title of the book: "The Revelation of Jesus Christ.” “Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand." Revelation 1:1-3.

When the books of Daniel and Revelation are better understood, believers will have an entirely different religious experience. The prophecies of Daniel and the Revelation should be carefully studied, and in connection with them the words, "Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.” John 1:29.

The perils of the last days are upon us, and in our work we are to warn the people of the danger they are in. Let not the solemn scenes which prophecy has revealed be left untouched. If our people were half awake, if they realized the nearness of the events portrayed in the Revelation, a reformation would be wrought in our lives, and many more would believe the message. We have no time to lose. Get ready, remain ready and get others ready before it is too late! Maranatha!
